

Candidate Testimonials

“My experience with Eximius has been nothing but brilliant and refreshing from some of the other recruiters I have dealt with over the years .They had taken the time and trouble to get to know the company and people where I was interviewing and seemed to genuinely care that I would fit the role and business I would be joining.They were always available and took the time, often late in the evening, to take my calls and help me through the process. I would highly recommend and have kept in touch with them since they helped place me in my new role”

“Eximius is an organisation I have worked with for a couple of years and they have always provided a very high level of expertise and insight into the compliance market. They have always worked hard and have gone above-and-beyond to ensure they understand my needs whilst supporting me through what can be a very daunting interview process”

Candidate Testimonials

“Oliver has helped me to move jobs recently and I would highly recommend him to other candidates (and employers, of course). Recruitment can be quite a nebulous process from where a candidate is standing and Oliver has surpassed my expectations threefold. After reading a few posts on LinkedIn, I can see that I am not the first one whose expectations he exceeded but I am sure not going to be the last! Listening is a prerequisite but actually quite rare skill and it means a great deal to both candidates and employers. Therefore, I feel that it is important to highlight that Oliver has thoroughly understood my priorities in my job search and presented me with the opportunity that matched all of them. He then proceeded to do the recruitment magic; I was invited for the interview and it was up to me to do my best. It took less than a month between talking to Oliver for the first time and sitting behind my new desk. I am very impressed with how quick it all was. Oliver is a lovely guy, very pleasant to talk to, great at keeping you in the loop at different stages of the recruitment process. Whether there is progress or no progress he made sure that the stress that is associated with the job change didn't enter my mind. All in all, he has been amazing and I am very grateful for helping me get my dream job and all his help.”

“My experience of working with Oliver was different to previous interactions I had with other consultants. I found Oliver professional and was genuinely interested in what I wanted as my next career move. He demonstrated great knowledge of the compliance function and asset management industry which gave me confidence in his abilities. He provided updates throughout the recruitment process and made the whole experience feel effortless. Thank you again for delivering a great service and getting me into a great company.”

“First I would like to thank Oliver for helping me secure my next amazing role. Oliver has been throughout the process exceptionally helpful and professional. It has been a great pleasure collaborating together and definitely you are a people's person and exceeding expectations in a friendly manner. I look forward working in the near future and defiantly recommend you as a first point of contact for new exciting roles.”

I recently worked with Oliver as a candidate, when he helped me secure my latest role. At all times he was very professional and pro-actively kept me informed of progress and developments. He ensured that I was fully aware of what was required of me and also what was happening at each stage. I would recommend Oliver to other candidates and hope to work with him again in the future.

Oliver contacted me about 2 weeks ago when I started my job search. Within a week, not only has he found me a job but he found my dream job; which is quite rare as I am just starting my career. I truly believe his attention to detail and hard work is the reason I am about to start this exciting new chapter of my life. He therefore has my highest recommendation.

I am grateful that Oliver got in touch and provided me with the opportunity and guidance throughout the process as it was over-whelming to change from 9 years permanent job to contracting. He found the perfect role for me with a great team to support my growth and learning. His guidance and dedication is greatly appreciated and i wish him all the success.

Candidate Testimonials

“Sam has been very professional and always going the extra mile. His knowledge of the roles he recruits for, the companies and the industry has been second to none. He is quick, clear and always on the case. I will definitely be using Sam again in the future and highly recommend him to others.

Placed Candidate

“From my experience Sam gave me a good insight of what the firm required in the role and how they normally approach their interviews. Post interview he helped ensure that the process moved along to ensure a quick and satisfactory conclusion.”

Placed Candidate

“I was first contacted by Eximius a few weeks into my search for a new role. They were keen and driven to find me a role that suited my needs and ensured any role I was spoken to about was one that would be a good fit for the prospective employer and myself. Eximius have successfully placed me in a role that I am thoroughly enjoying and were helpful and informative throughout the recruitment process.”
