

Client Testimonials

“When I first met James, I was impressed with his unique and excellent presentation of candidates’ profiles. Not only did he put forward the top candidates in effective way, he also studied my reaction to every profile, addressed all my questions thoroughly, and consequently gained very good understanding of my difficult hiring requirements. He was so driven and determined to achieve his goals that he outperformed all other consultants I worked with in the past months. He helped me rebuild my Team, having placed 4 candidates in just 2 months – truly exceptional, far beyond my expectations! I highly recommend James for his excellent knowledge in quantitative valuations job markets, great influencing and negotiations skills and efficient execution.”

Client

“James knows his trade and, most importantly, delivers on a regular basis.”

Client

“James is very useful person with many contacts in the area. He has been especially helpful during the recruitment phase to ensure I successfully obtained a role. He is also up to date on current banking situation and is very approachable in relation to advice on roles and other roles not currently covered by him. All in all, a very professional service provided and recommended for future candidates”

Client

“James has continually been a high performer and highly regarded across the business. His ability to deliver on key accounts has enabled him to quickly progress up the career ladder at Eximius. He is someone I would happily recommend whether it be in a professional or social environment.”

Client

“James is reliable and professional, a great person to work with”

Client

“On several occasions James has helped me to recruit new team members and I have always been impressed with both his professionalism and in depth understanding of our sector. That knowledge and approach has helped us to recruit excellent candidates hence I would highly recommend him.”

Client

“I have worked with James for a number of years and would highly recommend him. He has excellent market knowledge, deep relationships and a strong track record within the financial services market.”

Client

“James has been with Eximius Executive Search for 9 years. He is fantastic at understanding the brief - precise, persevering and personable. Best in class!”

Client

eximius | financial

James Thompson, Director | Front office, Risk & Compliance

E: James.Thompson@eximius.com

T: +44 (0) 20 7648 6926

50 Mark Lane | London | EC3R 7QR