

Client Testimonials

“Matthew is a detail orientated Director who consistently looks for high levels of client and candidate service from his team. I have worked with Matthew on a number of roles with clients and his market knowledge and professionalism makes him a highly regarded Director and colleague.”

“Matt’s capability to directly deliver revenue, whilst leading his team and managing a large and diverse client group is fantastic. He is a natural leader and a very talented recruiter. Huge candidate market knowledge, and a very strong client following. Top contributor, and a great part of the team!

“Matthew has a fast growing and deserved reputation for Senior hires within the industry. Matt is a highly personable, highly efficient individual working with the utmost integrity and business ethics. I couldn’t recommend him enough to my network in any matters relating to recruitment and career progression”.

I tier bank

“Matt is an excellent director, he is always there to give guidance and pass on his knowledge of the market which is second to none. He has helped me develop as a recruitment consultant and has really pushed me to get where I am today. He is an invaluable asset to Eximius and would be to any company”.
